

PROFILES FROM THE FIELD

FONKOZE SOLIDARITY CLIENT IN JAKMEL, HAITI

(or approximately $750). She says “because of Fonkoze, I am back on my feet. The help and support Fonkoze gave the ti machann (market women) after the earthquake and, well, all the time, is what keeps us going.”

Photo credit: Darcy Kiefel

June 2011

This is Marie Josée Chérubin, she lives in Fonprens, Jakmel, Haiti. She is 35 years old and married. She belongs to the Fonkoze solidarity group called “The Lord Can.” Marie Josée has been a Fonkoze client since 2001. She sells mainly pèpè (The Haitian creole word for clothing that she buys in bulk). She also sells sugar, soap, motor oil, and bicycle parts. Her credit today is over 30,000 Haitian gourdes

